Design Portfolio

The portfolio of independent work should illustrate independent studies and your own work from practical experience and should be accompanied by a commentary of not more than 1500 words. The portfolio should not exceed A3 size (landscape format) and no more than 20 pages (include the cover and content page). It should be selected to fit the best to the materials which you want to present, including 3 projects and no more than 10 pages each. In general, the portfolio should inform in a concise way about your school and practical work. It should not be a loose collection of material; but be clearly structured to reflect your educational and practical experiences. Proper credit and context must be given for all work shown including author, collaborators, and professional office in which the work was completed. Failure to properly credit work may result in the portfolio being discounted or the applicant being disqualified. Please put down your full name on the front cover of the portfolio for ease of identification.

Applicants are requested to submit a portfolio that shows three projects only, highlighting the Design Evolution and Design Process behind each project. We are interested to understand your architectural thinking, see the progression you have made during your studies and your approach towards architecture. The portfolio should be edited and conceived as a project in itself; a reflection on what you have achieved in your undergraduate studies and a suggestion as to what you would like to study in the future.

Portfolios of (a) previous school work and (b) independent work with your full name and application number marked on the cover should be uploaded to the School of Architecture application materials collection platform no later than 01 December 2024. No hardcopy is accepted.
